

PARENTING 101:

What you need to know with Minke and Lizette

Dear Parents,

Thank you for your interest in our parenting workshops.

Minke Saayman is a clinical social worker in private practice, with a keen interest in working with children and their families. Her work includes play therapy with children, family work, attachment work as well as parental skills training.

Lizette Labuschagne is a forensic social worker in private practice, focusing her practice on providing services to families and children. Forensic social work includes evaluation and investigations with regards to child sexual abuse as well as comprehensive evaluations with the purpose of making recommendations in care and contact disputes.
